The legal stuff: We must receive a copy of the receipt by February 28, 2010 to get your reimbursement. Only receipts dated between January 28, 2010 and February 8, 2010 are valid. If product is on sale, only the sale price will be reimbursed. Each receipt may only be submitted once. Only real store receipts from Whole Foods or HEB will be accepted and entire receipt must be submitted. Subject to availability and store limitations. We are not sold in all HEB's and Whole Foods Markets so if your favorite store does not sell our peanuts, ask them if a store nearby does. This sale is not endorsed by HEB or Whole Foods Market. You cannot present the store receipt to the store for reimbursement, only Ricky's Lucky Nuts can reimburse you. If a store runs out of product it is under no obligation to replace product for the sale period. Receipts from any other store other than Whole Foods or HEB will not be honored. Ricky's Lucky Nuts Web orders are not included in the sale offer.
